The Danish Innovation System
- a brief introduction

Morten Solgaard Thomsen
Senior Advisor
Danish Agency for Science, Technology and Innovation
Web: www.dasti.dk
Contact: mst@fi.dk
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Focus area 1</th>
<th>Focus area 2</th>
<th>Focus area 3</th>
<th>Focus area 4</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Collaboration between business and research</td>
<td>Access to highly skilled workforce</td>
<td>Authorised Technological Service</td>
<td>Commercialisation of Research</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Programmes: Innovation networks</td>
<td>Programmes: Industrial PhD Knowledge pilots</td>
<td>Programmes: Authorised Technological Service Institutes</td>
<td>Programmes: Proof-of-concept Innovation incubators</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Cross-cutting efforts

| Evaluation and impact analysis | Service Innovation and the public sector | Future production in Denmark | Internationalisation | SME strategy |
Strategy for evaluation and impact analysis

• Impact assessment of all programmes
• Important tool for improvement of policies and programmes
• We can show the benefits for politicians and tax payers
• Manual for excellent impact analysis
• Using econometric methodologies (control groups)
The Danish innovation system - major funding bodies

Technology »push«

Basic research
- Basic funds
- National Research Foundation
- Council for Independent Research
- Council for Strategic Research

Research and development
- Council for Technology and Innovation

Demonstration
- Advanced Technology Foundation
- Energy Technology Development and Demonstration Programme
- Green Development and Demonstration Programme

Maturing of market
- Public Welfare Technology Foundation

Commercialisation
- Vækstfonden
- Business Innovation Fund
- The Danish Trade Council

Focus:
- Professional curiosity
- Applied and strategic research

Supply:
- Universities
- Other research institutions
- Research in companies

Demand:
- Consumers
- Businesses
- Public sector

Market »pull«
Join the stress test of innovation policy of the EU member states!
Register for the Europe INNOVA 2012 Conference in Copenhagen 23-24 October

www.europeinnova2012-Copenhagen.eu

• SME innovation support schemes
• Commercial exploitation of knowledge and IP
• Networks and cluster policies